

Cities have the capability of providing something for everybody, only because,
and only when, they are created by everybody.

The essence of the city is diversity and plurality; only in the city do we find all kinds of people and ideas and a multitude of different enterprise.

Never doubt that a small, group of thoughtful,
committed citizens can change the world.

Indeed, it is the only thing that ever has.
